

WORLD NEWS IN REVIEW

Spain

With Generalissimo Franco's official slogan—"Una, Grande, Libre" ("One, Great, Free")—still ringing in its ears, war-weary Spain last week beheld German and Italian troops marching with their own Spanish troops in Franco's Madrid victory parade. Whatever doubt spectators may have felt about Spain's ever being "free" in such a situation, Franco's own "compromise" uniform for the day, representing both the monarchy-loving Carlists and their deadly political enemies, the Spanish Fascists, must have raised even greater doubts about Spain's being "one," now or in the immediate future.

Japan

Japanese boarding of a German liner this week in the waters just off Hongkong, drew protests from Berlin. Similar action was taken by France after a French freight and passenger vessel was stopped by a Japanese destroyer and boarded by armed marines.

Raging Fire Destroys Two Plants

One of the most spectacular fires in the history of the Daly City-Colma area completely destroyed the box factory of the Half Moon Bay Box and Drum company and the main shipping shed of the Colma Vegetable association, Sunday.

Loss for the box factory was estimated at $75,000; for the vegetable association at $200,000.

Alarm Answered

At 1:15 p. m. a passing motorist turned in the alarm which brought all Daly City fire companies and the entire Colma fire department to the scene of the conflagration at Railroad avenue and San Pedro road. On arrival of the first apparatus the box factory was already a mass of flame and smoke. Wind carried embers to the vegetable association plant, which adjoins the box factory.

Pressure Low

The long leads of hose running from 1000 to 1200 feet failed to give enough pressure to fight the fire adequately. In addition to the local fire fighters, the pumping crew of Engine No. 33, San Francisco, and members of the South San Francisco fire department pumper crew responded to the call for aid. Chief Andrew P. Chesney, Daly City, and Chief Garibaldi, Colma, directed the fight.

The inflammable nature of the materials in both large sheds made it impossible to check the ravages of the flames and all efforts were bent to prevent the spread of the fire to the rest of the packing plants and box cars at the scene. As late as 10:30 p. m. firemen were still working to put out the last of the burning timbers.

Fatalities

Although three firemen escaped with only inches to spare when a portion of the vegetable plant collapsed with a roar, no serious injuries were reported. A. J. Gaggero, Mr. Stamponini, N. Kusber, and three others were given first aid treatment when they were overcome by smoke and heat. Martin Johnson, Westlake avenue, was sent to the Villa sanitarium for the removal of cinders from his eye.

Fire officials said spontaneous combustion may have caused the fire. An investigation was started.

Unusual is its capacity to carry four patients in safety and comfort. Fixtures of aeroplane steel provide secure anchorage for four 6 foot 6 inch cots. If only one or two patients are to be carried, the auxiliary cot fixtures may be slid out of place and junk seats may be pulled down for the convenience of attendants.

The ambulance is built up from a 1939 model high speed General Motors truck. It is all steel equipped with safety glass.

Separate tests are made of auxiliary instruments indicating engine temperature, oil pressure, generator output and gasoline reserve.

Auto Dealers Report Local Sales On Increase

More Daly City and Colma residents than ever before are purchasing new cars from the local automobile agencies, statistics show. Better trade-in deals, lower overhead and an increase in the "trade-at-home" outlook are probably the foremost reasons for the increase. Six agencies, covering all the popular makes of cars, serve Daly City and vicinity.

Occasion for the visit was "Ford Day" which presented an all-day program of fun and festivities climaxed by the bon voyage to Ford No. 27,000,000 from the stage of the colorful "Cavalcade of the Golden West" show. Mayor Angelo J. Rossi of San Francisco, President Leland W. Cutler of the fair, and a representative of the governor's office joined with Ford dealers from many points in the western states to send the symbolic car on its cross-country journey.

Produced on February 15 at the Richmond, California, branch plant of the Ford Motor company, the twenty-seven millionth car had been on exhibition in the elaborate Ford Building at the Golden Gate International Exposition since the opening. Upon arrival in New York it will become part of the great Ford Building exhibits at the fair on Flushing Meadows.

Civil War Vet Visits Daly City

William Richards, 95-year-old Civil war veteran, Cedar Vale, Kansas, arrived in Daly City recently to visit his daughter, Mrs. George Buttles, Los Banos avenue. He expects to remain until the first of next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Buttles entertained in his honor Sunday with a dinner at their home. Present were five generations of the same family: William Richards, Mrs. Malinda Buttles, Mrs. Bertha Monty, Mrs. Freda LaMont and her four-year-old daughter, Rosalie.

Mr. Richards enlisted as a volunteer in the Union forces May 24, 1864, and was a member of Company A, Fourth Regiment of the Kentucky Volunteers. Most of his service was in the campaign in the South.

Asked what were his two hardest-fought battles, Mr. Richards named Nashville and Franklin, Tennessee. He was mustered out of the army August 17, 1865, at Macon, Georgia.

Last year, at the age of 94, Mr. Richards was a guest of the United States government at the national encampment of Civil war veterans at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Commemorating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, the affair lasted from June 29 to July 6, 1938, and was attended by 2,000 Union veterans. Himself a veteran of the famous battle, Mr. Richards was accompanied on the trip by his daughter, Mrs. Anna Westbrook. Mr. Richards will be a special guest at the Memorial Day services at Vista Grande park today (Tuesday).

Rapid progress made by children of the WPA Recreation singing and harmonica classes led local Recreation leaders this week to express their belief that the children will soon be able to broadcast on a radio amateur hour. Instruction was begun only six weeks ago.

Present enrollment of the classes, held each Monday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Grace Douglas, at the Recreation office, 101 Parkview avenue, is 40 pupils. An average of between 20 and 25 attend each session.

It is expected that during the summer vacation, enrollment will be substantially increased. No charge is made for these classes, and any child is welcome to enroll at 101 Parkview avenue. Harmonicas may be purchased through Jerry Hull, Recreation director, at a very nominal wholesale price.

Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholomew Co-Starred

Tomorrow's heroes are the boys of today!

From the carefree ranks of boys who now spend their lives in sport and play must come the men who will "run the world" tomorrow.

How some of these boys are trained for leadership and courage forms the dramatic theme of Universal's "Spirit of Culver," which opens Thursday at the Daly City theatre with Jackie Cooper and Freddie Bartholomew in co-starring roles.

Told in fast-moving and graphic scenes, the screenplay shows what happens to Cooper, a homeless, vagabond, when he is awarded a scholarship and given a chance to prove himself at Culver.

Freddie Bartholomew, who has abandoned his white Eton collar for a trim military uniform in the picture, has the role of Cooper's English room-mate. He is the young cadet who steeps himself in the traditions and ideals of the famous school and helps Jackie forget his grudge against society.

Screen favorites heading the supporting cast include Andy Devine, Henry Hull, Tim Holt, Gene Reynolds, Walter Tetley, Jackie Moran, Kathryn "Sugar" Kane and Marjorie Gateson.

Companion Feature

Second big attraction on the new bill will be "Wife, Husband and Friend," a gay romance starring Loretta Young and Warner Baxter.

World-famous orchestras, conductors and soloists will appear in concerts, recitals, opera and ballets during the Music Festival of the New York's World Fair. Among the artists will be Fritz Kreisler, Lily Pons, Jascha Heifetz, John Charles Thomas, Josef Hofmann and Jan Kiepura.
